

Valery Medvedev

Gorodissky & Partners, Managing Partner
Patent & Trademark Attorney

Education

Moscow State Aviation University, 1981
Moscow Institute of Intellectual Property, 1985
Sorbonne University, Paris, summer 1990
Franklin Pierce Law Center, New Hampshire, summer 1992

Experience

From 1981 till 1997 worked for IP firm “Sojuzpatent”, in 1998 joined “Gorodissky & Partners” and has been serving as a Managing Partner. Valery has over 30 years of experience in the intellectual property field with a special focus on representing clients at the Russian and Eurasian Patent Offices on patent and trademark cases and advising clients on issues related to infringement of IP rights in Russia and licensing matters. Member of FICPI, LESI, AIPPI and INTA. Regularly lectures on IP matters at international and national conferences and seminars.